

REGULARS

- 12 Editor's Notes - Welcome to Enthusiast
- 14 Commentary - Ice Racing and Classics
- 20 Letters&Email - A few comments
- 80 Tech Corner - Weight and Alignment
- 85 Design Focus - Aprilia Magnet
- 86 Fun Stuff - Shoes, Wheels and Horns
- 88 Project Car - Racing Golf
- 90 Classifieds
- 99 Colophon

MODERN CLASSIC

HONDA PRELUDE 4WS SI

24 It may be a common sight in NZ, but the 3rd generation si is a very competent long distance tourer.

ESCORT: A HISTORY

26 We all know it as the BDA, the standard for rallying in the 70s, but how did the MKI and MKII Escorts develop?

UNDER APPRECIATED

31 And over depreciated. A few modern day performance classics that have been overlooked for no good reason.

SOUTHERN DRIVE

64 Around Dunedin, there are myriad driver's roads with some simply astounding views and wildlife along the way.

KIWI BUILT

REDLINE SPRINT RS

32 50s looks with 21st century performance and then some, how a tiny Kiwi company built a classic racer with serious performance.

SEVEN SE7ENS

34 From an all original Series one to a New Zealand designed Fraser, Enthusiast looks at the state of the seven and its offspring.

SERIES ONE SEVEN

44 The original may not have a huge amount of horsepower or a big engine, but at only 400kg its power to weight ratio equals a WRX.

MK1 GTI 1.8T

56 Some modern Audi engineering stuffed under the hood of a lightweight first generation GTI? Sounds great!

HOT hatch

A look at the origin of the species, from the mid 70s in Wolfsburg, we trace the history of the hot hatch to its zenith in the late 80s. We also examine the definitions of the niche.

IN THE BEGINNING

52 The Volkswagen Golf GTI started a veritable revolution, adding the term hot hatch to our vocabulary, we examine its development.

SPIRITUAL SUCCESSOR?

57 The new MKV GTI claims to carry on the hot hatch torch at VW, but can a 3200lbs car really match the original 1800lbs GTI?

ALL TIME BEST

59 The ten best hot hatches of all time, it was a tough job, but the best floated to the top. Sounds great!

AMATEUR MOTORSPORT

SEEKING SEBRING

28 A drive down the east coast to America's top sports car race, a real petrol head vacation experience.

MID SEASON RECAP

46 The NZ Rally Championship made the roads around Dunedin and Rotorua its home for two weekends recently.

NEW TO KARTING

72 A guide to the what where when and how much of karting from Kartsport NZ.

RACE TO THE SKY

76 New Zealand's premier hill climb, the experience, the results, and more from Cardrona.

TRACK DAY

WESTFIELD v RADICAL

66 The ultimate track day cars, but what are they like to own? We drive on road and track to find out for ourselves.

ELFIN MS8

64 An all Australian effort puts a very serious V8 commodore kick under the sexy bodywork and lightweight race bred chassis.

TRACK DAY PREPARATIONS

69 Part 1 of our series on everything you need to know and do to get ready for a track day.

SCDA TRACK DAYS

78 The Sports Car Driver's Association is a great way to get track access for little money along with professional instruction.

Enthusiast is published by Cathode Media
 54 Moray Place
 Dunedin, New Zealand 9001
 Phone: (3) 477 4119
 Mobile: (027) 201 7739

www.ENTHUSIASTMAG.com

This magazine is solely a design exercise undertaken by Nathan Dana at the University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand. All material is used for educational purposes only, and all original writing, photography and design is copyright of the author. See page 99 for further details.

Editor: Nathan Dana
 editor@enthusiastmag.com
 Publisher: Nathan Dana
 publisher@enthusiastmag.com
 Art Director: Nathan Dana
 art@enthusiastmag.com
 Staff Photographer: Nathan Dana photographer@enthusiastmag.com